

BAC December 2018 Benefits Insight Newsletter

Hi,

Welcome to the December 2018 edition of the BAC Benefits Insight Newsletter.

This month we have several important updates for you and your staff. One of which is the recent ruling by a federal judge in Texas regarding the (ACA), the Affordable Care Act.

Please take some time to review each of the attached articles and let me or your BAC account manager know if you have any questions regarding the material.

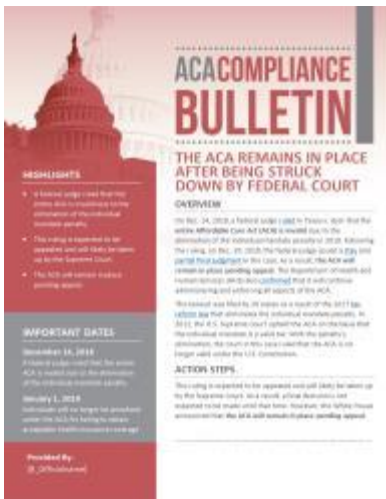

Thank you and Happy Holidays!

Tim Hill
Founder & Managing Principal
Benefit Administration Company

NEW BLOG POST

Medical Renewal Got you Down?
Get to Know QSEHRA

The ACA Remains in Place After Being Struck Down by a Federal Court

On Dec. 14, 2018, a federal judge ruled in Texas v. United States that the entire ACA is invalid due to the elimination of the individual mandate penalty in 2019. This ACA Compliance Bulletin provides an overview of the court's ruling and its impact on the current state of the ACA.

Download now

IRS Announces Employee Benefit Plan Limits for 2019

The IRS recently announced cost-of-living adjustments to the annual dollar limits for various welfare and retirement plan limits for 2019. This Compliance Bulletin summarizes the 2019 limits for commonly offered employee benefits.

Download now

Live Well, Work Well Newsletter - December 2018

This month's issue provides tips for sticking to an exercise plan during the winter months, discusses how your cellphone may be covered in bacteria and highlights ways to fight holiday stress.

Download now

Benefit Administration Company, LLC.

1200 5th Ave Ste. 1100

Seattle, WA 98101

206-625-1800

<http://www.benefitadministrationcompany.com/>

